

Family Income and Expenditure Data Analytics

NCR stands out with a significantly higher average income, exceeding ₱400,000, which is noticeably above all other regions. Following that, 4A - Calabarzon have averages around ₱300,000, while most others range between ₱200,000 to ₱270,000.

MEDICAL CARE SPENDING BY AGE GROUP

The 60+ age group spends the most on medical care, averaging between 10,000 and 12,000, likely due to age-related health needs.

The 46–60 group follows, with spending between 6,000 and 8,000. Those aged 31–45 spend around 4,000 to 6,000, while the under-30 group spends the least, with an average between 2,000 and 4,000.

DISTRIBUTION OF HOUSE FLOOR AREA

The highest number of houses (the peak) is found below 50 square meters.

AGRICULTURAL VS NON-AGRICULTURAL HOUSEHOLD

73.1% of households are non-agricultural. 22.2% are Agricultural households. and this 4.7% falls under another category.

Agricultural vs Non-Agricultural Household

PROPORTION OF INCOME SPENT ON FOOD

Most people spend only a small part of their income on food less than their total income. Very few people spend more than they earn on food.

PREDICTIVE

Predicting Household Income from Number of Employed Family Members

